Citizen Safety Forum Offers Free Crime Prevention Seminars for Valley Residents

PHOENIX - Local residents can learn how to reduce crime and improve their personal safety and security at the 2016 Citizen Safety Forum, a series of free informational seminars presented by the Maricopa County Attorney's Office. Offered at locations in the East and West Valley, the Citizen Safety Forum features sessions on personal safety, home security, and identity theft as well as a complimentary lunch and Q & A session with Maricopa County Attorney Bill Montgomery.

"This event offers an excellent opportunity for citizens to learn important information that can help them avoid becoming a crime victim," remarked Maricopa County Attorney Bill Montgomery. "I encourage people to take advantage of this free service and help us in our shared mission of improving public safety in Maricopa County," he added.
